

Holy Family Church, Kajang 125th Anniversary Theme Songwriting Competition (“the Competition”)

The Competition is organised by the Holy Family Church, Kajang (“the Church”) for its 125th Anniversary. The objective of the Competition is to give the parishioners an opportunity to contribute towards composing a theme song for the 125th anniversary of the Church.

Rules

1. The Competition ends on 15 December 2022 at 11.59pm. The winner will be announced before 28 February 2023 or once the judges have completed the judging process and once the participant agrees to the terms required of the winning entry as described below (whichever is later). The Church reserves the right to extend the entry dateline as well as the winner announcement date.
2. The Competition is open to parishioners of the Holy Family Church, Kajang, aged 10 and above. For participants below the age of 18, the entry shall be submitted by the parent and/or legal guardian via the parent’s and/or legal guardian’s email.
3. The song shall not exceed four (4) minutes in length.
4. The lyrics must be suitable to be used in a Catholic environment. The lyrics must also be related to the anniversary celebration of the Church, but do not have to include these exact words. However, the song MUST contain the words “Holy Family”.
5. All entries must be submitted in either an audio (mp3) or video (mp4) file along with the entry form to the following email: hfk125@archkl.org. A copy of the lyrics and the musical composition of the entry must be enclosed in the said email.
6. The song can be submitted in Bahasa Malaysia, English, Mandarin and/or Tamil or a combination of any of these 4 named languages. We encourage the use of more than one language to reflect the diverse backgrounds of our parishioners. The winning song will be translated into either Bahasa Malaysia or English (or both).
7. A participant may submit multiple entries however each entry shall be submitted separately. Each entry email shall contain only ONE (1) song.
8. Each song may have multiple co-writers, but only one name should be designated as the submitting participant on the entry form. All songwriters must be listed on the entry form in the field requesting the names of the songwriters. Please list the full name of the songwriter(s). The prize will be awarded jointly to all i.e the writer and co-writers of the winning song and the division of prize is the responsibility of the winner.
9. Each participant shall, by entering the Competition, indemnify and hold the Church harmless from and against any claims, damages, expenses (including solicitors fees), actions and/or losses of any kind arising out of or in connection with the Competition, including but not limited to copyright infringement liability. All entries submitted must be an original song and shall not infringe any Intellectual Property Law and/or any law, rules and/or regulations.
10. Each participant by entering the Competition agrees and consents to the Church using and collecting, storing and processing the participants personal data for purposes of processing the application and submission and for the purposes of the Competition.

11. The winner shall, if required by the Church, a) make amendments or adjustment to the song; b) make and/or provide a better resolution file; and/or c) submit the works, composition of the song in a different format or medium if requested, by the Church within a stipulated period, failing which, the winner shall be disqualified and an alternate winner may be selected.
12. The winner shall own the copyright to the song. However, the winner shall be required to execute a confirmation and consent form confirming that the song is the winner's original work, has not been used prior to this submission, does not infringe any copyright laws and/or any applicable law and that the winner owns the rights to the song. The consent shall grant the Church a perpetual, royalty-free, irrevocable right and license to use, reproduce, copy, publish, display, distribute, perform, translate, adapt, modify the song (whether the audio and/or lyrics) in whole or in part and at the Church's sole and absolute discretion, for any purpose and in any mediums, manner or media, forum, social media, website now known or later devised throughout the world, and to license others to do so, all without compensation. The consent of winners below 18 years of age must be provided by the parent or the legal guardian. Failure to provide such consent within the required time period or provision of false information will result in disqualification and an alternate winner may be selected.
13. In addition to the above, the winner shall also consent to the Church and/or the Church's agents and related organisation storing, using and processing the personal data that is provided to the Church for the purposes of production, processing, broadcasting, uploading on any social media, updating, providing news, using of promotional material, branding, official documents, marketing, and usage of song. The winner also agrees agree that the Church and/or the Church's agents may disclose the personal data to the relevant third parties, religious organisations or governmental authorities where required by law or for legal purposes. For the purpose of updating or correcting such data, you may at any time apply to the Church to have access to your personal data.
14. The decision of the judges is final and not open to dispute.

Note : Personal Data includes all data defined within the Personal Data Protection Act 2010 including all data you had disclosed to the Church in Registration Form.
